Summary of reasons for decision:

The image depicts a man performing a sexual act on a young girl and is a record of her sexual abuse. It is deemed objectionable because it promotes and supports the exploitation of children for sexual purposes under s 3(2)(a) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993. The image presents young girls as freely available for adult sexual use and is intended for the arousal of adults with an interest in children. Material such as this normalises and legitimises children as appropriate subjects for adult sexual attention and arousal. This classification interferes with the right to freedom of expression as affirmed by the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990, however it is consistent with Parliament's intention that publications that promote and support s3(2) criteria are deemed objectionable. The classification also reflects the concern of New Zealand society to protect its young and vulnerable members from sexual exploitation.
